for our third annual “At Ruth’s Table” conversation. This is an opportunity for education leaders who are women to gather for learning, networking, and idea sharing. Each practicing education leader is encouraged to bring a guest who is a woman considering a career in education leadership. Guests attend without cost, and we are again offering a reduced student rate.

Let’s build our community of women who are excellent education leaders. Register using the form below.

We look forward to convening past, present, and aspiring women leaders for this important conversation!

And don't forget to save the dates for our second Legends Retreat ... stories of women in education and their legacy of leadership.
