

Moving the small cog makes a big difference!

We do not need individual leaders creating numerous small initiatives. We need all leaders to be a part of a larger vision!

Change the odds for youth:

Expect adequate progress for each age group from early childhood to young adulthood

Change the landscape of communities:

Ensure adequate supports across all settings where youth spend their time

Change the way we do business:

- Ask all stakeholders to take shared responsibility
- Align policies and resources
- Engage youth and families
- Improve quality and quantity of services
