

Are your educators struggling with student loan debt?

It doesn't have to be this way.

More than 60% of educators have student loan debt, and that debt weighs heavily on their decision to stay in the profession.*

The good news is you can do something about it. We've already helped put educators on the path to more than $250 million in student loan forgiveness and find an average of $300+ per month in student loan payment savings*. Horace Mann Student Loan Solutions is an industry-leading suite of online tools and loan coaches that will help your staff manage their student loan debt and qualify for federal loan forgiveness.

This program will help your educators get on a path toward a brighter financial future so you can better attract, support and retain the quality, full-time educators you need.
